

School Music Development Plan

Developing Music in your Primary School - A Self-Assessment Document

About this self-assessment document

Our thanks to Kent Music who have kindly allowed us to use and adapt this document. The document helps you to assess your current music provision and to plan and develop your school music vision moving forwards. The refreshed National Plan for Music Education, published in June 2022 recommends all schools, and MATs have a Music Development Plan in place to show their ongoing commitment to the development of music in their school or Academy Trust.

Intended audience: Headteachers, Senior Leadership Teams and School Music Leads.

How to use this document

Step 1: In collaboration with your school/department establish your vision for music

Step 2: Using the music provision self-assessment table, assess your current provision thinking about your newly created vision. Source evidence to back up your findings.

Step 3: Write a plan of action to identify how you will achieve your vision from your current position. How will you address the gaps in your provision?

Step 4: Review the impact the strategy has had on music in school and adjust your vision when necessary.

STEP ONE – CREATING A VISION FOR MUSIC IN YOUR SCHOOL

What is a vision

In the busy day-to-day life of a School, it can be difficult to see beyond the demands of teaching your classes, dealing with students and colleagues, and managing administrative tasks. However, it is essential that you find time to step back and look at the bigger picture and spend some time reflecting on your current position and thinking about where you see music in your school in the future.

The decision that you make will become the vision for your school.

Why is it important

A vision allows everyone to work towards the same goal. This can often be a challenge as there are often so many areas of focus. If you lead a team, or are part of a MAT, it's beneficial to complete this process together because it not only provides you with different opinions and ideas but also creates a more supportive environment where staff are invested in the long-term vision. If you have sole responsibility for music, you may benefit from collaborating or linking with another school. Cumbria Music Hub can help you with this if you don't know where to start. If that is not possible or you prefer to work independently then a vision will help you to keep track of your goals and progress towards them.

It's important to consider your school's ethos and vision when completing your plans so that your vision aligns with the school's overall aims.

Things to consider when creating your vision

What do you think the purpose of studying music is?

How do you want your pupils to be changed by music?

What is your ultimate goal?

How does music contribute to the school ethos?

How do you see all elements of music provision working together: 1-1 and small group tuition, whole class instrumental learning, curriculum music and music groups and ensembles.

High-Quality School Music Education consists of three distinct, but interlinked areas of provision:

- Curriculum music, compulsory from key stages 1-3
- Instrumental and vocal lessons, and ensemble membership.
- Musical events and opportunities, such as singing in assembly, concerts and shows, and trips to professional concerts.

[*The power of music to change lives:
A National Plan for Music Education \(June 2022\)*](#)

Our Vision for Music:

• Music is a key part of our lives. It is everywhere and at an educational level, can provide a liquid link between a diversity of academic subjects whilst offering children something that is emotional, imaginative, creative and fun. • Music can be a truly inclusive subject and the driving force for learning. • Music stimulates brain development in children: it is a great way to enhance reading comprehension abilities in children. • Music integrates into many different subjects, e.g. Maths, History, Science etc. • Music can help to develop the skills, attitudes and attributes that can support learning in other national curriculum subjects. This includes listening skills, the ability to concentrate, memorization, math and pattern-recognition skills, creativity, intuitions, spatial intelligence (which allows them to perceive the world accurately and form mental pictures, spatial intelligence is helpful for advanced mathematics), aesthetic sensitivity, perseverance, the ability to work in a group, self-confidence and sensitivity towards others. • Students learn to improve their work: Learning music promotes craftsmanship, and students learn to want to create good work instead of mediocre work. This desire can be applied to all subjects of study. • Increased coordination: Students who practice with musical instruments can improve their hand-eye coordination. Just like playing sports, children can develop motor skills when playing music. • A sense of achievement: Learning to play pieces of music on a new instrument can be a challenging, but achievable goal. Students who master even the smallest goal in music will be able to feel proud of their achievement. • Music builds imagination and intellectual curiosity: Introducing music in the early childhood years can help foster a positive attitude toward learning and curiosity. Artistic education develops the whole brain and develops a child's imagination. • Responsible risk-taking: Performing a musical piece can bring fear and anxiety. Doing so teaches kids how to take risks and deal with fear, which will help them become successful and reach their potential.

STEP THREE: PLAN OF ACTION

Reflect on your findings from the self-assessment process. Take some time to select between one and four areas for development and however many categories you need to develop which you can detail in the drop-down boxes below.

Create a plan using the table which will support you as you develop your selected areas. This plan could be linked with the School Improvement Plan (SIP) or could be part of your own departmental plans.

If you would like additional support with creating your plan you are welcome to contact Cumbria Music Hub. We also offer a range of CPD opportunities for music teachers across Cumbria. Please do visit our website for more information on what courses are on offer.

Curriculum	Curriculum Design	To make more links with local Secondary schools. E.g live performances, workshops etc.	JULY 2025	Has an attempt been made to fulfil action? Conversation with Music Lead, evidence on school music website
Tuition and Ensembles	Instrumental Ensemble provision	To provide a recorder club from Year 2 upwards up for at least one term.	JULY 2025	Did this happen? Conversation, evidence on school music website page
School Life and Opportunities	Inclusion	Ensure pupil premium are taken into consideration when opportunities arise. Ensure njo pupil is not able to access due to funding.	JULY 2025	Children would be supporting with funding e.g Young Voices
School Life and Opportunities	Live Performances	At least 1 opportunity a year for children to experience a live performance	JULY 2025	Music lead to have liaised with Cumbria Music Hub to ensure she finds out of any opportunities and also liaise with secondary schools for any opportunities.
Tuition and Ensembles	Instrumental and Vocal tuition	To provide 1:1 instrumental lessons each week (flute/piano/keyboards), open to KS2 children.	JULY 2025	Music Lead to provide 1:1 instrumental instruments during school hours, with agreement with the whole staff.

STEP FOUR: REVIEW

Once you have had time to work on some of your focus areas, review your original self-assessment and alter bands accordingly based on the improvements you have made over the year.

It is at this point where you can choose to create yourself new targets to support the development of music provision in other areas or continue working towards your current targets if there is still work needed.

As part of the Music Hub's funding agreement with Arts Council England (ACE), the Hub Lead Organisation is required to monitor schools' engagement and the effectiveness of our programmes. In return for the provision of this School Music Development Plan template and guidance, please support our reporting by answering the two questions below and submitting through our online form.

1. In what stage of development is your School Music Development Plan?

Please note that if you have completed this template document and it has been adopted by your school, then your SMDP is Established.

Established	The SMDP has been written/created and is being delivered in this establishment, and mechanisms may be in place for ongoing review and improvement. This also includes establishments within a Multi Academy Trust which are delivering a plan that is in place for the whole trust.
In Development	The SMDP is in the process of being created. It is not yet being delivered in this establishment but aims to be delivered within the current or following academic year. This also includes establishments within a Multi Academy Trust where a plan for the whole trust is in development.
Development Pending	The establishment has not yet begun to create a SMDP but has indicated intent to create an SMDP within the following academic year. This also includes establishments within a Multi Academy Trust where a plan for the whole trust is pending development.
No intent around SMDP	The establishment does not have a SMDP in development or pending. It has been confirmed that the establishment does not currently intend to create a SMDP.
Not Known	Stage of development for the SMDP in this establishment is not known.

2. How embedded is the Model Music Curriculum (or equivalent) in your school/establishment?

(N.B. – 'Equivalent' refers to a curriculum that is at least comparable in breadth and ambition.)

Established	The MMC (or equivalent) has been adopted and is being delivered in this establishment in all relevant year groups/Key Stages. Mechanisms may be in place for ongoing review and refinement. This also includes establishments within a Multi Academy Trust which are delivering a music curriculum that is in place for the whole trust.
Partially Established	The MMC (or equivalent) has been adopted and is being delivered in this establishment in some but not all relevant year groups/Key Stages. Plans may be in place to expand across all year groups/Key Stages. This also includes establishments within a Multi Academy Trust which are delivering a music curriculum that is in place for some but not all year groups/Key Stages for the whole trust.
In Development	The MMC (or equivalent) is in the process of being adopted. It is not yet being delivered in this establishment but there is an intention to implement it this or next academic year. This also includes establishments within a Multi Academy Trust where a music curriculum for the whole trust is in development.
No intent around MMC (or equivalent)	The establishment has not adopted the MMC (or equivalent). It has been confirmed that the establishment does not currently intend to do so.
Not Known	How embedded the MMC (or equivalent) is in this establishment is not known
